An aerial night photograph of Dubai, United Arab Emirates. The image captures the city's sprawling urban landscape, illuminated by warm streetlights and building lights. In the foreground, a sandy beach meets the dark blue waters of the Persian Gulf. A prominent road, likely Sheikh Zayed Road, stretches from the beach towards the city center, lined with palm trees and modern architecture. The background is dominated by the Dubai skyline, featuring numerous skyscrapers. The most prominent building is the Burj Khalifa, which stands out with its sharp, illuminated spire. Other notable buildings include the Burj Dubai and the Burj Jumeirah. The sky is a deep twilight blue, providing a stark contrast to the city's lights.
